
COMPLAINTS ABOUT TEACHERS

The school division advocates that the principles of fundamental justice and due process be followed in the resolution of disputes.

If the dispute cannot be resolved with the teacher, the complaint must be made in writing and signed by the complainant. A copy of the complaint must be given to the teacher as well as the Principal of the school and Superintendent. The Principal shall try to resolve the dispute.

If the dispute cannot be resolved by the Principal, the Superintendent will attempt to resolve the dispute.

If this does not resolve the dispute, the written and signed complaint may then be directed to the School Board through the Superintendent.
