CULTURE DAY

At Heyes we love to celebrate our culture bringing together students, teachers, and families to embrace different traditions and learn from one another. Please feel free to wear something or share about your culture!

April 23rd

Heyes school enjoyed a awesome cultural performance by Damien Lussier. His upbeat music had the entire school entertained, engaged and even dancing!

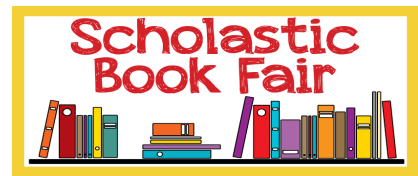

The Grade 5's had a lot of fun through out the month
Learning all about
Festival du voyager!

Thank you Ms. Hoffman Schlosser
for hosting our Book Fair!

It was a very successful fair. Thank-you to all who came out and supported. Thank-you to all the volunteers who helped. We sold $4000 worth of product, which means we get back over $1500 in books for our Library!!! Can't wait for the next Book Fair!

Congratulations to Murray, Gisli and Nyjah for playing soccer in the Golden Boy Tournament for the Churchill Storm under the Swan Valley name.

The boys enjoyed making new friends with their teammates, the fast paced environment, and having opponents that forced them to play beyond their comfort level.

Swan Valley Youth Soccer is planning to upgrade their program to include an Academy level for U9, which hopefully brings more players out to the game!

Heyes Students had a great time up at Thunder Hill.

Thank you to all of the Staff from Heyes and Thunder Hill for making it possible to have a great and safe day!

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR GRADE 3'S &
5'S FOR COMPLETING THEIR LEVELS OF SURVIVAL SWIM LESSONS!
